SIXTH INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION
OF THE
Mechanics' Institute,
SAN FRANCISCO

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE MECHANics Institute hereby give notice that the Sixth Industrial Exhibition of that Association will be held some time in August next, in a building to be erected for the purpose in Union Square in this city. Every preparation will be made to accommodate exhibitors and visitors with a view to make the Exhibition profitable, instructive and pleasant to all parties.

During the three years which have intervened since the holding of the last Exhibition in this city the manufacturing, mechanical, scientific and useful and ornamental arts have made unprecedented progress on this coast, and it is believed that the proposed Exhibition will exceed any other in value that has ever been held on the shores of the Pacific.

The plan of building to be erected which has been adopted by the Board of Directors, it is believed will prove to be the best adapted both for display and convenience of the public of any building ever erected in the State. The building will be perfectly water tight, being covered with a shingle roof so that no damage from the elements can be anticipated.

All parties who are interested in any of the branches of Manufactures, Mechanics or the Arts and Sciences are invited to exhibit in the proposed Exhibition and to share in the publicity and consequent profit which always attends such enterprise. Suitable premiums will be offered and the specific date of opening the Exhibition will be published at some future time.

Union of the Old and New School Presbyterians.

ALBANY, May 23.—In Presbyterian School Assembly, Dr. Eells, of Steubenville, Ohio, presented the report of the Joint Committee of the old and new school branches of the Church, on the subject of re-union. The Committee was appointed in 1866. It consists of fifteen members from each body. The report is signed by all but three members, and while they approve it their signatures could not be obtained in time. The report recommends re-union on the following basis:

1st. Re-union shall be effected on the doctrine of the ecclesiastical basis of our common standard scripture. The Old and New Testament shall be acknowledged as the inspired Word of God, and the only infallible rule of faith and practical confession of faith shall continue to be received as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures.

2d. All ministers and churches embraced in the two bodies, shall be admitted to the same standing in the United Body in which they may hold their respective connections, up to the consummation of the re-union.

3d. The boundaries of the several Presbyteries and Synods shall be adjusted by a general assembly of the United Church.

4th. The official records shall be held as making up one history of the Church, and no rule which does not stand approved by both shall be any authority, until the re-establishment of unity, except so far as such rule may affect the rights of property.

5th. The corporate rights now held by the two general assemblies shall be consolidated, and applied to the several objects defined by law.

6th. There shall be one set of Committees and Boards for home and foreign missions, and other ... and other religious enterprises of the Church.

7th. As soon as practicable, the general assemblies shall reconstruct and consolidate the several permanent committees and boards, which now belong to the two assemblies.

8th. The publications of the Board of Publication and of the Publication Committee shall continue to be ... as at present, leaving the Board of Publication of the United Church, to revise these issues.

9th. Those theological seminaries that are now under the control of the ... Assembly may, if their board of directors so elect, be transferred to the care of one or more of the adjacent Synods.

10th. It is agreed that presbyteries ... the right to examine ministers applying for admission from other presbyteries, but each presbytery shall be left free to decide for itself when it shall exercise that right.

11th. It shall be regarded as the duty of all our judicious ministers and people in the United Church to study the things which make peace and to guard against all needless and offensive reference to causes that divided us.

12th. The term of reunion, if approved by the General Assemblies of 1868, shall be turned over to the several presbyteries under their care, and shall be of binding force if ratified by three fourths of the presbyteries connected with each branch of the Church within one year after they shall have been submitted for approval.

After some discussion it was resolved to take up at once for discussion and consideration this plan for reunion and continue discussion without interruption than special orders previously made.

Rev. Samuel W. Fleecher, of Utica, of the New School Church and Representative from the Joint Convention of 1867 made an earnest and eloquent appeal in behalf of reunion.

This amendment, which was opposed by the Ministry on Monday night but carried on a division, was last night accepted. ### The National Platform.

Will those who have been condemning and denouncing the aims of "Radicalism" look at the National Union Republican platform? If they will look at it they will discover how busily they have been falsifying in regard to the principles and objects of the party. Will any one take the platform and point out a principle ... rted in it which ought not to be maintained? Where is the dangerous and destructive "Radicalism," with denunciations of which our ears have been so long and vehemently assailed? This platform embraces every measure and object of the party, and fully sustains all that the party has done or proposes to do. It goes just as far as the party has gone, and no farther, and those who have been accusing the party which has practical the country of revolutionary schemes and endeavoring to fasten upon it the odium of doctrines which it never asserted or adopted, may read in this official declaration of the party's principles and purposes a complete confutation of their gratuitous falsehoods.

The first resolution sustains the reconstruction policy of Congress, congratulates the country on its assured success, and declares that the C... ...ons which have been adopted in a majority of the States lately in rebellion should be maintained to prevent the return of ... chy or military rule. Will those who have been in such agony about military rule in the South now change their tactics, declare ... ment and recognition of civil governments there and take the ground that military rule ought to be perpetuated? ### Interesting Comparison

The nomination of Grant and Colfax gives Beriah, otherwise known as the Editor in Chief an opportunity to get off a piece of writing which he has had no chance to use since 1864. We shall take pains to make this fact apparent by giving parallel passages from the Democratic Press and the Herald. On the 9th of June, 1864 Beriah published in the Press the following article

OLD ABE NOMINATED

"The cannon proclaims it to the heavens and the heavens echo it back to the earth, that the deed is done" Old Abe is nominated and ... t in House post office and mint are jubilant "Verily, the ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib." The telegraph says—"Lincoln nominated by acclamation" Why not? Was not that what the delegates were sent there for? Were they not employed, bought and paid for that service? Is it so remarkable an event among the supporters and employees of the Administration, that the portion of hirelings composing this convention, did not betray their trust but performed in good faith the service for which they were employed, that it should be celebrated with demonstrations of joy and jubilations? So it appears Everybody knew a month ago that the Swiss Guard" of "the Government" had packed the convention for their master, and the demonstrations by which the event is announced are only so much buncombe by the office holders, "as in duty bound." Poor little Andy Johnson of Tennessee is awarded the barren honor of the second place on the ticket, for all the dirt he has eaten.

It is a notable fact that of the four Abolition candidates for Presidential honors now in the field, the discoverers of the idea, the Yankees have not one, and three are renegade Ohio's Lincoln a Kentuckian, Johnson a Tennesseean, Freemont a South Carolinan, and Cochrane, a New Yorker of Scotch descent. It is strange that even "the most enlightened people on earth" have to take their leaders from the ignorant South, and not get the best specimens at that.

We have given this article entire, because it is fairly in the spirit of the article which the "Editor-in-Chief" published in the Herald of Saturday, on hearing of the nomination of Grant and Colfax. But to set the thing out still more clearly we put in juxtaposition a portion of the article in the Herald, and a portion of an article published in the Press during the last Presidential campaign

Many of the citizens of Oregon know Grant, their personal knowledge of the man only extending back to a few years past. They remember him only as a street bummer, a disgrace to the army and a scandal to society, without the intellect or manly graces to attract attention to his dissolute habits, or to distinguish him from the ordinary street drunkard. Should he be elected, the country will have a drunken President who has never had any experience or exhibited the first qualification of a statesman by any public act of his lifeSchuyler Colfax is one of the accidents of an accidental party triumph. As President, he never had or pretended to have any policy, plan or conception of ultimate results, beyond the one object of negro emancipation For all else his only motto has been—"Keep pegging away and trust to luck" The veriest boor or most stupid ignoramus, could have done as much and as well His partisans can point to no act of his Administration which would have reflected any credit upon the shrewdness or statesmanship of a backwoods pettifogger He has constantly violated his pledges, and acted at cross purposes with his own plans Never were mingled in one man so much of the grotesque, disgusting and dangerous; he plays the buffoon upon the field of carnage over his slaughtered countrymen; homingles in decent jokes with the most serious affairs of State, and with clownish ribaldry assails the most sacred rights of man, committing heartless acts of tyranny and oppression without regard to age, sex or condition; he combines the head of a mountebank with the heart of a despot.Written by Beriah Brown Nov. 30, 1864Lincoln is simply a vulgarian, the creature of accident, thrust into a position which he had neither the ability nor the ambition to achieve by merit, to which he clings with the instinct of animal greed and cunning for self preservation, ignorant or regardless of the means and motives which a high grade of intelligence, and noble ambition |

Now we ask the reader to decide if these extracts do not beautifully illustrate each other? How beautifully, also, do they illustrate the Copperhead style of talking about all eminent men who had anything to do with preserving the Union. If the names were changed, each of the above extracts would quickly pass for the other anywhere. Is not Beriah's article on Grant and Colfax, especially when read in the light of what he said about Lincoln four years ago, truly valuable as a model of political criticism? The "Editor-in-Chief" will have a chance to grind over all his old editorials during the Presidential canvass. The foul-mouthed, venom-tongued, craven-spirited creature will probably pursue this course as the safer one, instead of making vile attacks on the character of persons of less eminence who are within reach of him.

Ben. Hayden,—tumble-bug Ben.,—made some remarks here Saturday night, in the course of which he "put it as a legal proposition that Congress now had no more right to reconstruct or do anything with the Southern States than it had before those States went out of the Union." We remember that Ben., when he last rolled his ball here, "put it as a historical proposition" that Webster, Calhoun and other great statesmen, had denied the power of Congress to pass a tenure of office law. But ignorance like this well suits the capacity of Ben's "Democratic" auditors Of course while he and they hold that Congress had no right to reconstruct the seceded States, they also hold that the sole right to do this rested with Andrew Johnson.

The reason that the first reports from the Southern elections are always favorable to the Democratic rebels, is, that the newspapers, telegraph offices, express lines, steamers, ships, mines, banks, hotels, lands and waters of that quarter of the globe belong to the reactionary party And their desire for success is so strong as to render them incapable of judging except by official figures. These are some time coming, and meanwhile their Democratic coadjutors in the North derive a good deal of comfort from what experience must soon teach them is but a ghostly hope.

Says the Stockton (Cal.) Independent, "In all the local elections, San Jose, Contra Costa, Oakland, Placerville, Nevada, Marysville, Sacramento and our own city, that have taken place this spring, or in the words of an exchange "since the Union party became re-united through defeat," the Union men have triumphed, and this, too, in merely local mat... ..., where the party's strength, as is well and generally known, can never be brought to the polls. With Grant to lead the column much heavier majorities will result to the Union ticket next fall."

There are 11,000 Government bond holders in the Second District of Ohio,—the amounts held by each varying from $50 to $2,000. These are the "bloated aristocrats" against whom the "Democracy" are making war.

Union men! Move on the enemy's works to-night!

Transaction in Greenbacks

From the Unionist.

Since the Herald has raised the greenback question the following interesting particulars have come to us from a leading citizen whose credibility is beyond question in Oregon

In 1861 Mr Parrish had a law suit with the Willamette Woolen Manufacturing Company about the division of certain property. The court ordered a sale, and also that the party purchasing should pay the other in cash, part down, and other parts in three and six months At that time greenbacks had not come into circulation in Oregon but did directly after The company became the purchaser, and paid the first installment in gold or cash, as the court intended On maturity of the second and third payments, greenbacks had come into vogue and the company paid Mr Parrish in depreciated currency, thus swindling him out of $ 00

The Unionist adds that J S Smith, then Secretary and legal adviser of the Company, wrote and published an elaborate justification of the transaction This document may be found in the files of the Statesman

In his valuable article on General Grant, Beriah says "At the battle of Chickamauga Grant, though nominally in command, was not in the field and did not issue an order. The battle was planned and executed exclusively by Thomas" This is one of the "veteran editor's" best efforts at making history The battle of Chickamauga was fought on the 19th and 20th of September, 1863 Most people had supposed that General Rosecrans was in command in that battle. Grant at that time had nothing whatever to do with the army of the Cumberland. When the battle of Chickamauga was fought he was at Vicksburg confined to his bed by having been thrown from his horse at a review. He did not rise from his bed for a week after the battle of Chickamauga, and for two months could not walk without crutches Rosecrans was relieved of his command about a month after the battle, the Departments of Tennessee, Cumberland and Ohio were consolidated, and Grant placed in command. A month later, November 24th, the battle of Lookout Mountain was fought under the immediate direction of Grant and with splendid success, the rebels losing an immense park of artillery and thousands of prisoners. Beriah accuses Grant of being an habitual drunkard. Was he drunk himself when he wrote what we have quoted above? Or is he so pitifully ignorant as to know nothing whatever about the greatest events in our history?

The Old Guard, a "Democratic" magazine, and the only representative of the higher literature of the party, in its April number remarks that "the Democratic party is paralyzed by its long cringing before usurpation and despotism. A hundred men of the pluck and patriotism of Wilkes Booth, at the start of these terrible despotisms, would have saved our country from all it has suffered." It adds "Those who talk a softer language than this have either to thank their cowardice or shallowness." Can honorable men associate with a party in the which the spirit of assassination is so clearly manifest?

A correspondent at Oregon City writes: "The nomination of Grant and Colfax inspires great enthusiasm here. It is the strongest possible ticket and satisfies everybody except incorrigible rebels The same flag, the raising of which "hurt the feelings" of Copperheads, when our first Union meeting was held here in 1861, is again waving in the breeze, as we hurrah for the greatest hero of the late struggle. We are right for June and November."

The old treasonable organization of the Knights of the Golden Circle is again being organized under a new name. The New York Tribune says the name Kuk Klux is possibly a modification of the infamous title Golden Circle, the Greek word for circle being kuklos. A slight variation from the true pronunciation would give the existing popular name. No doubt the traitors now banding together are direct descendants of the Knights of the Golden Circle

Friends of Logan, come out to night!

WHAT AN UNSOPHISTICATED GIRL THOUGHT OF BEECHER'S PREACHING —At first, I thought he was a farmer, he told us so much about sowing and harvesting. Then, when he talked of training roses and pruning grape vines, I changed my mind, and concluded he was a gardner, but soon after that he described printing, and made it so plain, I decided he must be a printer, after all The queerest thing about it was that he should know all the folks up at Crosscut Corners, and be able to describe them so exactly When he spoke of people who think everything they have is just the nicest and best going, I thought Huldy Tucker, and when he described those who believed they are in a state of perfection, and can't do wrong, I knew he must mean Deacon Pettigrew I was so much interested in all he had to say, I did not think of anything else except once when my thoughts flew away to Joel. I so longed to have him there beside me! For I want Joe to love Sunday, and I am afraid he never will, unless he sees, as I have, how beautiful it can be made, and what a good, happy, cheerful thing such a religion as Mr Beecher's is. The congregation looked so interested, so eager to hear all he had to say, I do believe they would have staid until night, if he had chosen to go on preaching I did not notice a single girl chewing caraway seed, or a single boy using his jack-knife on the back of a pew Deacon Spicer, eighty five years old, always goes to sleep and snores between Parson Hinman's "fifthly" and "sixthly," but the old white haired men at Mr Beecher's looked just as wide awake as the young ones, and I do believe everybody went away feeling better, and kinder, and more resolved to lead good, true lives, than when they came —New York Independent.

ARKANSAS —Hon. Alexander McDonald, Senator elect from Arkansas, arrived in this city yesterday on his way to Washington. He states that since the election there has been a very g... ...al change of feeling in favor of the Constitution, that hundreds of men who then voted against it are now very hearty in their support of the new government, and that if the election were to be held again the Constitution would be adopted by a majority of several thousand. The close vote was the result of the most desperate and thoroughly organized plan of coercion and intimidation to prevent men from voting for the Constitution, and thousands of men were thus prevented from voting at all, or absolutely compelled to vote contrary to their wishes If there had been a fair election, the Constitution would have been adopted by ten thousand majority, for even now, Mr McDonald believes the Republicans have a majority of the white voters in the State. We hope that Congress will act favorably upon the application of Arkansas as soon as the impeachment trial has closed To attempt to admit the State before the trial closes would cause considerable delay The loyal men of Arkansas have had extraordinary difficulties to overcome, and they have nevertheless complied with every requirement of Congress To admit the State without delay will be great encouragement to other States, and hasten the final restoration of all —St Louis Democrat, April 23.

Another bit of information about Grant has been supplied by Wendell Philips, who announced that "his drunkenness in the streets of Washington is not denied" The main reasons why charges of this kind, made by persons of Mr Phillips' school, are not denied, is, first, that the public does not pay much attention to them, and, secondly, that those who make the charges would be the last to take any notice of the denials. But the readiness and frequency with which such charges are made against private character, and the impunity which attends the making of them, and the small amount of sympathy which anybody receives who shows any restiveness under them, are not pleasant to witness.—The Nation

MODEST —Brigham Young is a model of frankness He speaks of himself in the most unreserved manner, and the other day, in the course of a harangue to the faithful at Salt Lake City, he said; "When I speak to the Saints I include myself. I profess to be a Saint with the rest of my brethren and sisters, and my public and private life is the proof whether I am truly a Saint or not"

There is some talk in England of handing over the telegraphs to the Government It may therefore, interest the public to know that the French Government has just ordered the telegraph functionaries to swear sabres with steel scabbards

Good News From Deadwood.

From the Idaho World.]

From Tassell, the Expressman between this city and Deadwood Basin, we have received the following cheering intelligence from the diggings in that newly developed mining camp

Tassell left on Monday morning, and reached here in regular time on Wednesday. There are now two distinct mining districts in Deadwood Basin, called the Old Districts and the New Districts, respectively. In the former, about 100 men are busily engaged, and in the latter, about thirty men The best claims so far known in the New District are in Elwood gulch, where Elwood, Houston & Co., and H H Knapp & Co. have very good ground The latter made a clean up, for prospect, of two days run, with two men's work, and the product was thirteen ounces and four dollars—$213 Johnson & Co, who are also in the New District, have good prospects.

In the Old District, the chief claims belong to Gray, Rimer & Co, the Dutch Co, and Bunker & Co. At present, all have free water, and only one or two companies have made a cleaning up, but the indications have satisfied all of them that they have good paying ground The Dutch Company made a clean up after a run of fourteen days with three men and hydraulic—free water—and took out over $5,000 This company have a ditch completed from Rock and Wilson creeks five miles long which will yield them an ample supply for their own use, and enable them to furnish a supply to other claims The capacity of the ditch is between 300 and 400 inches. The water was let into it for the first time on last Monday The price of water is 50 cents an inch for twenty-four hours.

Gray Rimer & Co. have made a very cheering clean up, but the amount is not stated. This company have still plenty of free water, but so soon as this shall fail, they will commence work upon their big ditch which taps Deer creek eight miles above, and will flow a volume of fully one thousand inches, to feed the miners in both old and new districts.

The snow is melting away in the old district, and all the claims that have been taken are being worked but there is still a good deal of snow on the ground in the new district, and until it disappears a large scope of ground will have to remain idle. Everybody in both camps are busy at work, however, and parties or individuals daily arrive to locate claims

A case of claim jumping has been decided in the old district. The claim of Bunker & Co which was located last fall, was jumped by Rev... & Co., who alleged that the ground had not been properly represented The verdict of the miners' meeting is in favor of Bunker & Co. was appealed to an arbitration of three, who gave a similar judgment, and this was accepted as final A case involving a suit at law has sprung up between the Gray and the Dutch companies, in regard to the right of the latter to dump on the ground of the former, who are the oldest locators

The diggings in the Basin run from two to twelve feet deep of stripping, and are easily worked. The soil is a soft loam, marshy in places with a very little gravel or rock in it. The only trouble to the miners is the fallen, rotten timber, whence the Basin derives its name, and which lays thick in places. The timber there is small, lofty white pine, and the soft top soil does not afford sufficient grasp to the roots, so that the trees readily topple over on the occasion of a high wind or other rude shocks.

The Payette river runs through the Basin, and for seven miles down, all along the flats, the ground is staked and located for claims by the miners The prospects obtained from these flats have so far been very satisfactory

The main valley of Deadwood Basin is about eleven miles long, and in width runs from a narrow lower pass of 400 yards, near the point of entrance, to a maximum of one and a half miles above. It is mostly rolling land, and is watered by a number of small streams the whole length The gulches are small and narrow, and prospect or pay very handsomely From the Basin to the headwaters of Salmon river the distance is only fifteen miles, and the trail thither leads through a low and easy pass in the mountain divide. The trail follows on to Salmon diggings, sixty miles from Deadwood, and one hundred and twenty miles from Idaho City.

In that region, all the way from Deadwood to Salmon river, there is an abundance of deer, elk, antelope, rabbits, and a species of bird resembling grouse, called 'fool chicken,' which will neither fly nor run when shot at or hunted, but will stand to be killed by a stick, and will make fight, however, at their assailant, no matter whether man, or beast, or other bird. Over in Salmon river, and in some of the creeks of the Basin, fine salmon trout and other species of fish abound

From the interesting information which we have received from Tassel, and from others who have located in Deadwood Basin, we can but conclude that it will yet prove to be one of the best mining camps in Idaho.

A STREET SCENE —A gentleman was walking down Front street yesterday, very finely dressed wearing a Ventilated Straw Expert Hat, which suited his style ... dress first rate A man from the opposite side, approached him, asking, 'Jimmy, where did you get your hat from?' I wish to get one just like it "I bought it of Meussdorffer. I have bought my hats of them ever since I arrived on the coast first in San Francisco then my business took me up to Marysville, where I got my hats brushed off in their store, they never charging me anything for such little jobs Finally I went to Sacramento where I purchased the hat of Meussdorffer which I wore yesterday Last steamer brought me up to Portland, and of course my silk hat was too heavy to wear during the hot weather, so I was compelled to call on Meussdorffer again and got this hat I came very near purchasing three hats, for he had so many different styles that suited me it was hard to say which I liked best I would advise you to call on him soon, for he said he had only a few dozen left" The gentleman immediately started for Meussdorffer's Hat Store

TURN VEREIN MAY FEST.—The annual May Fest of the Portland Turn Verein took place, yesterday at Pleasant Grove, on the east bank of the Willamette, a short distance below Milwaukie. The attendance during the afternoon was probably not less than one thousand or twelve hundred people. The threatening aspect of the weather in the early part of the day not only deterred many from going, but cast a tinge of gloom upon those who were present. It is impossible for people to be entirely without uneasiness when they are in momentary expectation of being caught in the woods by an Oregon mist. However, as time wore on and the rain did not come, the excursionists forgot to be anxious and devoted themselves heartily to the pleasures of the occasion. The exercises at the grounds were opened shortly after the arrival of the ... Alert from Portland and Senator from Oregon City, half past ten A. M., by an oration by Mr. F. ... Geheim (in German), followed by an address, in English, by Mr. D. Freidenrich. Both gentlemen made very neat, eloquent and appropriate speeches and were greatly applauded by the listeners. At the conclusion of the addresses, the Turners and their guests betook themselves to the amusements for which the committees had made ample preparations. There were sack races in which the contestants looked like so many ... mummies, and tumbled about much as might be expected of mummies in a trial of speed. Foot races; target shooting by ladies, very few of whom, strangely enough, manifested much skill in the management of their bows; gymnastic performances by the Turners and some very bungling imitations by outside tyros; dancing, in which everybody took a part; ... and swings by the young people, etc., etc. Everybody seemed to enjoy the scene, some, immensely in a demonstrative way, others in a quiet manner suggestive of serene satisfaction with the world and all its pleasant things. The ...'s Band, of this city, contributed greatly to the pleasure of the occasion. The admirable arrangement by which visitors were enabled to go up or return at ... any hour, at pleasure, was an excellent proof of the foresight of the managers. The festivities continued with unabated ... until near night, the last boat-load arriving at the city after 7 o'clock. The general verdict seems to be, "well, we had a first-rate day of it." The Turners are entitled to a unanimous vote of thanks, for a day of unalloyed enjoyment.

AGRICULTURAL CIRCULAR.—The following circular is from the President of the State Agricultural Society:

Dear Sir—By resolution adopted at the last meeting of the Board of Managers of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, a committee was appointed, with instructions to obtain such general statistics and information regarding the different portions of the State, as will be wanted by those ... ing immigration and settlement in the West; and in furtherance of the interests of all who are now ... in our State. Acting under the intention herein expressed, I respectfully submit for your careful ... the following general questions regarding your locality, to which answers are earnestly solicited; ... any and all facts not covered by them, which may occur to you as important:

1. The character and cost of public buildings.
2. The average price of farming lands, improved and unimproved.
3. The amount of tax on the dollar in your county.
4. The general nature of the soil and its adaptation to farming purposes, such as grain and stock raising, dairying, growing of vegetables and fruits of the various kinds.
5. The ... kinds of timber, its adaptation to building, fencing and general lumbering purposes, and the facilities for converting it into the same.
6. The quality of water for family use; its convenience for stock, milling and mechanical purposes, and the liability of damage to the owner from overflow and freshets.
7. The nature of the climate of your locality, general health, liability to billious fevers and ague.
8. Inducements held out to mechanics, tradesmen, professional men and teachers.
9. The facilities for immigrants to obtain grain and seeds of all kinds, farming implements, mechanics' tools, provisions, clothing and groceries.
10. Opportunities for schooling and meetings for religious worship.
11. Facilities for marketing productions of all kinds, and ... of transportation.
12. What mills, manufactories and manufacturing resources have you in your region? Mineral wealth of any kind, fisheries, salt and saline springs, lumber and exporting of all kinds of lumber.
13. Can Government land be obtained in your region of country, and if so, would it be of any value, to actual settlers, for agricultural, mechanical or lumbering purposes?

POTATOES HIM.—The funny man of the Bulletin manifests much regret at the blunder he made the other day in regard to the colored daughter of the widow J—n, and begs "tumble" and begs so piteously for the young lady's forgiveness and will evidently be in such a state ... if ... to fume, that we should ... trust the young lady will not be hard with him. To err is ... he has erred. To forgive is divine, she might ... thus save him from despair, and perhaps a ... and early a cold, watery, uncomfortable grave. It ... be human ... to drive the poor fellow to greater straits, and we shall trust he will be forgiven and that he may be happy yet.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.—We hear the Sunday School picnic of Saturday spoken of in the highest terms of commendation. About two hundred people, including the Unitarian Sunday School, participated. The children engaged in various games and exercises of an appropriate nature, while the older people became young again and played at foot ball, or some other game equally well calculated to drive dull care away. All returned in the evening the happier, and, perhaps, better, for the day's recreation.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR A CORK LEG.—The appeal published in the OREGONIAN a few days since, for help to purchase a cork leg for Wm. Atkins is bringing forth fruits. Besides the contribution already mentioned from the unknown lady, receipts of $2 50 from Mr. Traver, $10 from Charles Hillienbrand, $12 50 from the printers in the Bulletin and Farmer's Job printing offices and $2 currency, from an unknown source, have been acknowledged. Who comes next?

GRAND REPRESENTATIVE, I. O. O. F.—We learn that Bro. E. L. Bristow, Grand Representative elect, to the Grand Lodge of the United States, Independent Order of Odd Fellows will take his departure for the Eastern States within a short time. His address will be Warsaw, Hancock county, Illinois, until September first.

FREIGHT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The Almotia will be towed down the river to-day. In addition to the freight taken from this city, she has on board 60 tons barrels, staves and headings, from the St. Johns' factory, 100 tons wheat and oats and 12,000 lbs wool from Springville.

OREGON PRODUCTS.—The following produce was received Saturday: Per Wenat, 18 gunnies bacon, 2 kegs lard, 2 boxes eggs. Per Senator, 125 sks flour. Per Alert, 300 sks flour, ... coops chickens, 58 hogs, 5 gunnies bacon, 2 cans, 9 boxes, 6 cases unspecified.

ARRIVED.—The brig Brewster, Paul Corno, Master, arrived yesterday morning from San Francisco, with a cargo of about 400 tons merchandise.

SUPPORTERS OF GRANT AND COLFAX' do not fail to be present and participate in the ratification meeting and torchlight procession to-night.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—The United States Circuit Court will convene again to-day.

OFFICE AND RESIDENCE—Southwest corner Front and Yamhill Streets, opposite E. J. Northrup & Co's Hardware Store.

I am now making, amongst numerous other styles of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, the improved Vulcanite Plates of Dr. G. W. Cool's Patent, patented Dec 3, 1867, the improvement of which consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold, it not only makes the plate double as strong and cleanlier than the common Vulcanite Plate. It also can by it be made considerably thinner and lighter, whereas the price is but little above that for common plates. Call and see specimens.

N. B.—Dentists wishing to secure the office right for Dr. G. W. Cool's Improved Vulcanite Plates can have it made out to them by applying to this office.

N. B.—To strangers I would say, that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First-Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

A THRILLING INCIDENT

In the mission life of Mrs. Ingalls, in Burmah, is well told in the "Baptist Messenger," relating how she was sent for to visit one of the Budhist high priests, who had been nearly killed, and how, while in the most holy place in their temple where none but the priests had ever before been admitted she was permitted unrebuked to use for him the sacred vessels which none but the high priest dare touch, and to even overturn and sit on one of their gods to rest, all through the magic influence of the Pain Killer, called by them the "God medicine," so successfully had she used it in curing their many diseases some of them considered heretofore fatal in that climate, among which were cholera, liver complaint, dyspepsia, the bites of venomous reptiles, &c. This speaks volumes for the Pain Killer. Union Times.

Rev J. K. Clough, Missionary at Ongole, Southern India writes:—"We esteem your Pain Killer very highly for scorpion stings, cholera, &c., and cannot very well get along without it."

Rev I. D. Colburn, Missionary at Tavoy, Burmah, writes: "I shall be happy to assist in extending a knowledge of a remedy so speedy and effectual." m1d&wlm

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels,
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

Hurrah for Grant

Hurrah for Grant the tried and true
Once more the rebel copper crew
Are quailing as they need to do
Hurrah Hurrah, for Grant

Hurrah for Grant the People's man
He led the Loyal Union van
He beat the Confederate clan
Hurrah, Hurrah, for Grant

Are rebels better now than then?
Shall traitors rule the land again
And make the reptiles hunt their den,
Hurrah Hurrah for Grant

God Shall our land, so late restored,
The triumph yield to that vile horde
Who drew the fratricidal sword?
No No Hurrah for Grant!

Listen for those who fought and bled,
Who sleep serene in Fame's proud bed,
A voice comes from our LOYAL dead
Hurrah Hurrah, for Grant!

From peak to peak, our vallies through
Resounds the shout our Soldiers knew
Down with the damned rebellion crew!
Hurrah, Hurrah, for Grant

Did Buchanan Furnish Arms for the Reduction of Sumter

[Washington Correspondence Cincinnati Gazette ]

A Senator, of unquestioned honor and of the first standing at home, has been telling one of the Managers of the impeachment a curious story. It seems scarcely credible, and yet witnesses are named, and dates given with a minuteness which at least warrants its repetition

In the winter of 1860 61, before Major Anderson had left Fort Moultrie for Sumter—the story runs—a small boat one night approached the landing before the gate of Moultrie, and was hailed by the sentry The gentleman in the boat sent word to the commandant of the fort that he was the bearer of a message from the President of the United States It was after midnight, and Major Anderson, on being aroused to receive the message, sent word that he would see the gentleman in the morning. In a few moments the puzzled sentry returned. The gentleman said that he was instructed by the President of the United States to deliver a certain message, that his instructions were to deliver it forthwith, that he had used all possible dispatch in presenting himself, and that he must insist on being received without delay.

Thus pressed Major Anderson hastily dressed himself, and ordered his untimely and pertinacious visitor to be admitted. The gentleman proved to be an officer holding a responsible position in the civil ... of the government in South Carolina. He presented a communication addressed to the commanding officer in Charleston harbor, and signed "James Buchanan, President of the United States." It required him to deliver, on receipt of the order, fifty cases of rifled arms, then in his possession, to the civil authorities of the State of South Carolina.

Major Anderson remonstrated. The bearer of the order persisted. "This is the handwriting," he said, "of your Commander in Chief, I insist upon ... ace to its requirements" Or, if the Major were unwilling to obey, he insisted upon an explicit statement to that effect Thus pressed, the well intentioned officer—the story ... from ... and an order for the delivery of the guns was signed. These were the guns, the South Carolinian who makes these statements adds, with which sharp shooters afterwards picked off our soldiers at the embrasures of Sumter, while the insurgents reduced the fort.

"The question arises," said the Manager who told me ..., "whether the order thus presented was a forgery. If not, I hold that we ought ... to try and hang James Buchanan" For my ... the whole thing a ... mythical ... but the people who tell it are men whose words cannot be questioned; and it can do no harm ... anybody else knows any thing about the sending or the delivery of such an extraordinary order, shortly before the transfer of ... from Moultrie to Sumter

Charleston and Fort Sumter.

A correspondent of the Springfield Republican writes as follows of the appearance of Charleston to-day:

"Ruin and desolation must have held high carnival in this place; whole squares, parts of squares and single buildings were burned in all parts of the city, and there has not been a single good building put up here since the close of the war; a few small shanties is all. The buildings injured by shells have been most of them repaired The ... where we are stopping, was struck thirty-eight times. Saturday we visited the ruins of Fort Sumter, and a more perfect mass of debris can hardly be imagined Every front, except a small portion of the northwest, is entirely demolished, and that shows signs of a severe pounding.

There is no work going on at the fort, and only fourteen guns remain in it A lighthouse has been built on the northeast corner of the ruins, and the garrison consists of one negro and the light-house keeper. The iron that was hurled against it has been nearly all picked up, but there are still fragments of shell scattered on the rocks that ... the fort.

... of Charleston ... a beautiful ... to Northern eyes; the bright glossy leaves of the numerous evergreen trees, and the opening buds of deciduous ones, cannot but be pleasant to one so recently from the snow, and ice of the North. Oranges are growing and ripening in the open air, camelias and japonicas are in blossom, the Spanish bayonet, the magnolia, the holly, the live oak, and many other tropical and semi tropical trees, are scattered profusely around in the ... of the city. The citadel and United States ... all, unlike many other buildings in the city, are pretty clean and in good repair At the latter ... saw the two and three hundred pound Parrott ... that were used to shell the city and a ... other guns, nearly 20 inch ... of all ... and sizes. There are but ... troops now stationed in the ...

We ... here. We are told ... to the war, and but few ever ... There is scarcely any money in circulation ... the rebellion there ...

... of the State of ... Scott, under date ...

On the ... a man from that time to the 25th of December, agreeing to pay him $20; he to do all kinds of work required of him on a farm; to work from sunrise till dusk, to pay fifty cents for the first day, and one dollar per day thereafter, lost by absence without leave, and twenty-five cents for lost days by sickness; I to fu... him with two and a half pounds of bacon and one peck of meal per week.

The writer complains that the freedman did not keep his contract, but, without provocation, ran away, and wishes to know "if there is any recourse by law in any court of the United States for damages or to bring the man back to a proper sense of honor and justice" Gen. Scott replied on the 11th inst. as follows.

Headquarters Assistant Commissioner, B R F and Abandoned Lands, District of South Carolina, Charleston, S. C., April 10, 1868—Sir: In reply to yours of April 8th, in which you relate the ... of the contract between yourself and Jerry Scott, I have to express my sympathy with your trouble. Four dollars per month, with two and a half pounds of bacon and one peck of meal per week, and only one dollar per day deducted for absence without leave and twenty five cents per day for lost days on account of sickness, is surely all that any able-bodied man should ask as compensation for doing "all kinds of work required of him on a farm from sun rise until dark." I am not surprised that you should feel greatly outraged that this man has been ... to withdraw from a contract so liberal and just as the one you have described I regret that I am unable to arrest this man and ... him to your service, for it must be evident that a man who refuses to avail himself of your liberality is either deficient in gratitude or totally unable to care for himself Your statement that he was always a "freeman" will account for his want of appreciation of your generous intentions It will be unnecessary for you to forward me any certificates as to your own character and integrity. your ... at ... being all the evidence I shall require as to those particulars

I am unable to say whether you will be able to recover any damages from the man who has hired him (Jerry Scott), or whether you "will be able to bring him to a sense of honor and justice" If I knew as much about him as I do of you I might venture an opinion on this last point

I have, in accordance with your request, made an early reply to your communication and regret that I cannot make it more satisfactory to you

Respectfully, R K SCOTT,
Brevet Major Gen, Ass't Com, S C

The Pall Mall Gazette says in no ironical spirit, that the Supreme Court of the United States "has come to be recognized even in England, as the first court in the world"

Among the Sulphur Fumes.

The Naples correspondent of the Springfield Republican thus describes a trip to the Cone of Vesuvius He says

For a little while the road is similar to the one up the White Mountains, except the sides are covered with grape vines from which they make the Lacryma Christi wine (tears of Christ) After a short drive we come to something which looks like the slag from a casting furnace but which our guide tells us is the lava of 1858 We are much surprised to find lava is like that That smoke we see coming from the ground is from a crater of 1851, and it seems strange that it should smoke so long. We have arrived at the Hermitage, a house one half way up where we buy a bottle of the Lacryma Christi wine to drink on the mountain top We now resume our journey, which is becoming more and more rugged It is all lava now, and of different years and of every conceivable shape That cut yonder is the crater which destroyed Herculaneum and Pompeii Now we hear a rumbling noise sounding like an avalanche and, look! it is an avalanche—but of rocks We are yet too far off to enjoy it, and so hurry on We now find as we near the top that our road has been blocked by lava four days old so we take a turn to the left and take another path That huge rock there came down in 1858 Here we dismount, tie our horses to the rocks and begin the ascent to the cone What an awful noise it is making! It begins to look dangerous, but we come to see and see we must Strange, we find snow here, now it begins to be hard climbing, and we are rewarded by many a fall We jump from place to place having first tried them with a staff Now we are come to what looks like a huge pile of coke—must we climb over that? Why certainly if we would reach the top Well, just about this time we don't care if we do not reach the top, but we roll up our pantaloons and go it, perspiring as if it was summer That is past, but what are we coming to? Oh, that is a bed of black ashes, so at it we go, and soon are on hard rock, and hot rock too We sit down by a big rock and drink some wine, and watch the volcano sending up smoke and rocks into the air at a furious rate, roaring like a bull and hissing like a hard breeze We now begin to realise where we are, as the stones come rolling down, and all about us are hot rocks and smoke coming from them What a queer appearance things have, and it smells unpleasantly of sulphur Come to the other side, the guide says, and see the lava So for an hour we work our way to the other side, slipping, sliding, and sending the rocks booming down the mountain. Soon we arrive where it is so hot we keep moving to keep our shoes from burning We are now on the lava only twenty days old Look down that crack and see the red hot lava underneath—where should we go if we broke in? What is that bubbling noise we hear Wait until we get a little further and see we need to wait long, for the increasing heat tells us it is the hot lava—yes! and there it is! Oh! isn't that magnificent! And there we are standing at the side of a stream of hot lava pouring down the mountain like a torrent of water, and boiling like melted iron running from a furnace, and we are standing by its side, the only persons on the mountain, and the rocks and stones coming out above It is an awful feeling, as we stand and contemplate the surroundings and our situation.

Shall we go to the beginning of the lava or not? Yes, let us go So we commenced climbing up ward again How close it is getting, and the fumes of the sulphur are stifling. Here comes a shower of ashes, cover your heads until it has passed Can we go any further? We shall be smothered. We must now go on, as it is not safe to go back Oh, my God! can we ever reach the top? We are in a sulphur cloud. Oh, it is awful! Soon the guide yells out, "All right, messieurs, here is fresh air" We push forward, and arrived at the top, where the wind is blowing fresh, and oh how good. We are all shaking as if we were cold, but I attribute it to fright and fatigue Well here we are at the head of the lava, where it comes boiling out of the mountain and running down the side into the valley below. We refresh ourselves with a drink of wine, light a cigar in the hole, and as the situation is not very safe, begin our descent as rapidly as possible. I forgot to mention when near the top our guide informed us we were the first ones who had been to the top during the eruption Pleasant news for us when we had gone so far

The descent was very hard, occupying an hour, and accompanied by many a fall, but we do not care for that if we can only reach the bottom At last we come to our horses, and gladly mount them and get down the mountain as fast as possible. On arrival at the foot of the mountain we pay our bill (12 francs each) and the guide modestly tells us we ought to pay him forty francs for taking us so far He ought to have said, for trying to smother us with sulphur We, however, are too thankful to have escaped death not to give him a piece of our mind, so pay him his fee and start for our hotel; where we arrived at 5 o'clock, in time for dinner

It is said that the many falsehoods "nailed" in the newspapers during the past two months has given quite an impetus to the hardware trade.

Senator Sprague has been beaten in the suit where he, being sued by his gardener for $125, plead his Congressional exemption in the bar.

The New York Times thinks Gen Hancock would be the strongest candidate the Democrats could nominate for the Presidency.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern I hereby give notice that the so-called Shipley's Pacific Turbine Water Wheel is a direct infringement and copy of the James Leffel's American Double Turbine Water Wheel, the manufacture and use is hereby prohibited Any person or persons making using constructing or vending said Water Wheels make themselves liable to heavy damages and penalties Parties interested will take notice for I shall prosecute said infringements to the utmost extent of the law

That all may know I mean what I say and am not playing bluff I give the following extract from a legal opinion on this subject from one of the most eminent Patent Attorneys in the United States

WASHINGTON, D C, April 17, 1868

"MR. A. MYERS—In accordance with your request we have examined the patents of Shipley and Water Wheels and are clearly of the opinion that they both infringe the Leffel's patents In both of Shipley's Wheels he uses the upper and lower tiers of buckets precisely as Leffel does and in this he clearly infringes The fact that Shipley has applied another series of buckets in addition so them used by Leffel, does not relieve him from the consequences of infringement at all He has no right to use those two tier of buckets whether alone or with a third, or any other number of tiers added It is a clear infringement Respectfully yours
DODGE & MUNN,

I hereby give notice that I will prosecute every infringement on our Patents, whether it is the maker, user buyer or seller Every infringement, whether our claims are used in whole or in part, will be prosecuted

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents guardians friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it is too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost infinite extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory, hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath coughs, consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief
DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths shoe makers, newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates pretended patient's letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure

TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

OF WHICH THE ABOVE IS AN ILLUSTRATION has FOUR SETS OF BUCKETS AND USES THREE-FOURTHS OF THE WATER TWICE
The old high priced, unequalled and unrivalled wheel has been PLAYED OUT by a fair working trial made by Mr H. Kelly at his saw mill, and the public can see what he says as to the capacity of the two wheels in the following testimonial over his own signature

MR. H. W. SHIPLEY—Sir, In reply to your inquiry as to how I like you Pacific Turbine Wheel I have to say that I have used one over shot and three Leffel wheels —10 13 and 15 inch diameters When I substituted your 15 inch wheel for the 13 inch Leffell wheel though unfinished, it worked the machinery like a top, using 52 feet water per minute more than the 13 inch Leffell. At your request I subsequently took your wheel out that it might be finished, and then I put in a 15 inch Leffel but it gave no better power than yours while it used 52 cubic feet more water, per minute After some months I replaced your wheel and am still using it with the most satisfactory results I have subjected it to some severe tests. For instance: while running the circular saw in a log which squared 16 inches I added the planer with a 9 inch knife cutting from one eighth to one fourth of an inch depth, without in the least slacking the speed After thorough tests of both wheels I am satisfied that your wheel with gates one eighth of an inch open gives as much power as the Leffell with gates one third open At half gate your wheel gives double the power of the Leffel at half gate At full gate the power of yours exceeds that of the Leffel by from ten to twelve per cent At quarter gate the Leffel holds no comparison with yours at quarter gate.

N B Mr Shipley was not present at either of the trials of his wheel he being sick at the first and absent from the State at the second trial
